

“Caring for the Families of Fallen and Wounded Special Operations Forces.”

SPECIAL OPERATIONS WARRIOR FOUNDATION

History: Special Operations Warrior Foundation (SOWF) was founded in 1980 after the daring attempt to rescue 53 American hostages in Iran, which ended in the tragic loss of eight servicemen who left behind 17 children.

A battlefield promise to take care of those 17 children has become the noble mission of the Special Operations Warrior Foundation to educate over 1,300 children.

Mission: Special Operations Warrior Foundation’s enduring promise to America’s Army, Navy, Air Force, and Marine Corps Special Operations personnel is to: (1) Ensure full financial assistance for post-secondary education from an accredited two or four-year college, university, technical or trade school, as well as educational counseling, preschool grants, and tutoring to the surviving children of Special Operations personnel who lose their lives in the line-of-duty and, (2) Provide immediate financial grants to severely combat-wounded and hospitalized Special Operations personnel and their families.

Who We Are: Special Operations Warrior Foundation is a 501(c)3 non-profit located in Tampa, Florida with a staff of 17. SOWF was awarded its 13th consecutive 4-star rating for its efficiency by Charity Navigator. Administrative overhead costs are currently 5.6%

What makes SOWF different? We pro-actively reach out to every eligible family. They do not need to apply for our help.

How we raise funds: SOWF relies entirely on private donations to fulfill our mission. It's our generous donors who provide the college tuition, tutoring and immediate financial assistance.
